

I travel 70 miles, and over mountains to my job, and without XM weather and traffic I would have no service of this type because AM and FM stations drop out on me during my commute.